PROFILE

Chris Corchiarino is a senior associate with the firm. Chris studied in Europe before completing his undergraduate education at the University of Maryland at College Park. During and after college he owned and operated businesses in the Washington, DC metropolitan area. This background helps him to better understand and effectively represent the needs of his business clients. Chris has experience litigating myriad claims, including construction defect, products liability, breach of contract, employment matters, professional negligence, automotive injuries, general negligence, and securities arbitrations through the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. Nissan Motor Acceptance Corporation; Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC; Mitsubishi Motor Acceptance Corporation; Pfizer, Inc.; Spectrum Laboratory Products; Legacy Financial Services, Inc.; First Allied Securities, Inc.; Bayer; Metavante Corporation; and Intuit Inc. are among the many companies that have benefited from his experience and skills.

Chris has been invited to speak about risk management and avoidance. Chris has also written about matters pertaining to community associations, real estate development, protection of the attorney/client privilege, and is the co-contributing editor of the 2008 and 2009 editions of the Maryland chapter of the Tort Law Desk Reference: A Fifty State Compendium.
